

TWO WORLDS COLLIDING:

Combining science and clinical practice in the treatment of acute lymphoblastic leukemia (ALL)

A HIGHLY INTERACTIVE STUDY DAY FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS WITH AN INTEREST IN THE MANAGEMENT OF ALL. THE EXPERT PANEL WILL DISCUSS THE CURRENT AND FUTURE MANAGEMENT OF ALL.

Date: 13th September 2018 Time: 9am - 4.30pm

Venue: Hilton Manchester Airport, Outwood Lane, Ringway, Manchester M90 4WP

Agenda
09:00	Registration and coffee
09:30	Welcome from the chair	Dr Nick Morley, Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield
09:35	The science behind the treatment of ALL (Part 1)	Dr Elaine Vickers, Science Communicated
10:30	Coffee
10:45	The science behind the treatment of ALL (Part 2)	Dr Elaine Vickers, Science Communicated
12:15	Lunch
13:15	Pitfalls in the frontline management of ALL	Dr Nick Morley, Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield
14:00	Strategies for Treating Relapsed ALL	Dr Richard Kelly, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
14:45	Coffee
15:00	A case of Ph+ ALL	Dr Nick Morley, Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield
15:30	The Place of CAR-T therapy in the management of ALL	Dr Anna Castleton, The Christie Hospital, Manchester
16:15	Summary by the Chair	Dr Nick Morley, Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield
16:30	Close of the meeting

To register, please contact sharon.hodgkiss@amgen.com / 07917 720391